Student Reflection

This portion is to be completed and signed by the student.

Read the instructions for each question, and provide a thoughtful answer. The suggested response length is 50-100 words. Use complete sentences.

Read the Performance Review from your supervisor. Reflect on their assessment of your work. What will you strive to improve? What are you most proud of? How has this experience helped your professional development?

--

Learning Outcomes:

Think about the learning goals you set for yourself at the beginning of the semester. Did you accomplish these goals? Did you make progress towards accomplishing them? Describe the outcome of your attempt to achieve these goals.

--

Knowledge & Skills:

Identify new or enhanced skills that you acquired from your job or internship this semester.

--

Describe three situations where you were able to use your new skills.

--

What academic experiences were you able to apply to your work duties?

--

Work Culture:

What did you learn about your personal work style preferences? (Ex. Do you prefer working alone or in a team? What is your preferred way of communicating?)

--

Describe a situation where you worked with a team of co-workers. What role did you play? How did you contribute?

--

Personal Experience:

Which aspects of your job did you enjoy the most? Why?

--

Name one thing that you would change about your experience, and describe why.

--

How do you think your work has contributed to your employer and the clients they serve?

How do you think this experience will impact your future career choices?
